6 and 8 EAST THIRD STREET, MASONIC TEMPLE BUILDING

STUNN!

Which should remind you that now is the time to order SCREENS for the house. You're certain to need them before the season is over, so why not buy them at once and get the full benefit of them? They'll cost just as much after awhile as they do now. We have a complete stock of all sizes, both plain and fancy. Good, heavy frames and the best wire screen. Make a memo of the number and sizes you want and let us quote you. And don't forget to let us figure on that lumber you are going to use. We have the choicest stock in this section.

H. H. Collins Lumber Co.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Turtle Soup at Dutch's Place tonight.

Yesterday was the longest day in the year.

Mrs. D. A. Richardson of West Third street, who has been quite ill for some time, is improving.

Charles Mason and family have moved from Fifth street to East Second, Fifth Ward. Their many friends welcome them back.

In the absence of Dr. John Barbour, Rev. Maurice Waller will preach at 10:45 tomorrow morning at the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. H. M. Scudder of Carlisle is arranging for the publication of a souvenir pamphlet of the semi-centennial celebration at Elizaville.

Hon. A. E. Willson, nominee for Governor, may decide to open his campaign in his native city, Maysville. If he does the event will be one of the biggest political days ever held in Kentucky.

About fifteen of Friendship Rebekah Lodge, were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Elizabeth Edgington, at her beautiful country home Thursday. All enjoyed the beautiful day and bountiful dinner.

Mr. Brooks Dodson has accepted a clerkship ship in the L. and N. office in this city, and will enter on the discharge of his duties July 1st. Mr. Dodson is a capable and worthy young man, and is deserving in every particular.

Hon. W. H. Cox's correct name is William Hopkinson Cox, and he is a son of the late William Hopkinson Cox, and a grandson of George Cox, the pioneer Maysville merchant, a handsome oil painting of whom adorns our Public Library.

The following graduates of Miss Lida Woods School of Stenography have been placed in positions: Miss Anna Smith with the Maysville Foundry, Misses Marie Cook and Ophele Holiday with the Columbia Baking Company, Huntington, W. Va.

At the Christian Church tomorrow morning at 10:45 Rev. P. A. Cave will have his service especially for old people,—those who are unable to attend Church regularly. He cordially invites the public also to attend all the services at the Christian Church.

Police Judge Whitaker announces that any one before him charged with throwing or blowing "cherchoo" powder in any Maysville building will be given the limit. It is reported that the outrage was practiced at the Odeon theater the other evening. The Police are on.

L. T. Anderson of Point Au View Stock Farm reports the sale of nine head of high-class horses in the past ten days, including the fine five-gaited show mare Adelaide, to North Carolina parties; also, the three-gaited—walk, trot and canter—gelding, Blazes to Matt Cohen of Lexington.

Chief of Police John Boyle, of Jackson, Mich., addressed an inquiry to Chief Ort as to the whereabouts of one James H. Ferguson, who is said to have resided here at one time. A small legacy has been left him. Any communication addressed to either Chief Ort or Boyle will be thankfully received.

Regular services at the Third Street Methodist Church tomorrow. Subjects of sermons, "Surrender that Means Victory to the Surrendered." 7:30, "Laborers Together With God,—God's Helpers." At the close of the morning service there will be the election of a Lay delegate to the Conference at Louisville.

Miss Mary Daniton of West Second street, who is one of our finest horticultural experts, has succeeded in producing on Kentucky soil a bed of Philippine poppies from imported seed. The coloring makes an exquisite blend—a vivid scarlet, a delicate purple springing from a base of purest white. A large field of such poppies were worthy of a garden of a lord.

THEATRIUM.

Tonight will be your last chance to see the Bandit King. See the thrilling Stage Coach hold-up the Placer Mine and Bank Robbery. Open all day, cooled by electric fans. A quarter show for five cents. Don't miss it.

MORE DAMAGE SUITS

Others Want Pay For Injuries Sustained In Fleming Wreck

Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

Wednesday night four more damage suits were filed in our Circuit Court as a result of the wreck of May 10th, 1907, at the double-deck trestle.

They were filed by Nannie B. Rankin for $30,500, by C. B. Rankin for $10,250, by C. B. Rankin as next friend of his little daughter, Elsie Rankin, for $5,250, and by Mrs. Sallie K. Gramham for $10,500, making a total of $56,500, which makes $152,500 when added to the $96,000 already filed.

The suits are filed against the Cincinnati, Flemingsburg and Southeastern Railroad Company and the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company.

The Governorial campaign is to open in two weeks. At Louisville, Hon. AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON, Republican nominee, announced that he will begin his canvas early and that he proposes to make a thorough campaign over the state.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER is fully satisfied and contented with the status of the Taft Presidential sentiment in Kentucky, and, as much as it would have liked to have had him endorsed by the Louisville Convention, we think it was both wise and politic that the Secretary was not given the indorsement of the convention at this time. The success of the state ticket is the all-important and engrossing subject now up to the party. Kentucky is 3 to 1 for Taft, and we do not imagine his boom will suffer during the coming year. The entire country and the majority of the voters in both parties have declared that ROOSEVELT's successor must be a man committed to the President's policies, and that individual is W. H. TAFT—NOT FAIRBANKS, OR KNOX, OR FORAKER.

The delegates to the Hague Peace blow-out might ask themselves, "what are we here for?"

Owing to his serious illness former President GROVER CLEVELAND will be unable to deliver the principal address at Wilmington Del., today at the unveiling of a memorial statue to THOMAS F. BAYARD.

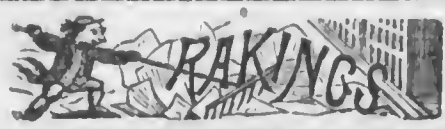

Poor little old Louisville. What she has to pass through is a plenty. Now it is announced that Governor BECKHAM is to take another political whack and a crack at the old town and is scheduled to make a clean sweep of the Democratic frauds who now occupy the offices, and replace them with simon-pure Beckham heelers.

YESTERDAY'S Courier-Journal, in a leading editorial commenting on the Republican Convention at Louisville, said:

"The ticket is a good, clean ticket. For the matter of that, so is the Democratic ticket. Personally, socially and from the neighbor standpoint, The Courier-Journal felicitates Mr. WILLSON upon coming to his own at last. He has been a wheel-horse in the cause of Republicanism. He has contributed to his party character and intellect and indefatigable activity. He has fully earned and richly deserves his nomination, and, whether he be elected or defeated, he will retain the respect and good will of all who know him.

"Nobody can tell what a campaign may bring forth. The race has yet to be developed. Many things lie in abeyance. From the present outlook it is a fight, and we think the Democrats realize this. Each party has its factions and dissensions. Much will depend upon the skill of the managers."

"On the whole the leaders have reason to congratulate themselves upon the brand of harmony."

A WARNING TO BOYS.

A farm boy went to the city to seek his fortune. For six months not a word was heard from him. Then one winter afternoon his father got this note:

"Dear Pa.—Meet me under the old bridge to-morrow after dark. Bring with you a blanket or a suit of clothes. I have a hat."

MAIL BROADENED HIS VIEW.

Effect of Confederate Letters on Gen. Lew Wallace.

How the opening of a mail bag full of captured confederate letters appealed to Gen. Lew Wallace, and gave him a new insight into the feelings and motives of his opponents, is one of the occurrences narrated in his "Autobiography," as follows: "After dinner, a soldier brought in a bag tied, not locked. 'Mail,' he said, 'just found.' I had him cut the string and empty the contents upon a table. They were letters unopened; the carrier had doubtless delivered them, then fled. I gave them to an officer for examination. Along towards evening he reported: 'There is nothing here of military importance. But—his voice softened—look of these. My mother might have written them to me. There are the same prayers in them for their side which we hear for our side—prayers, too, to the same God. I would like to know what you think of them.' And I replied, after having gone through them: 'Acknowledge myself wiser of a new lesson. The people of the south believe they have a cause; and certainly every one of them who is in the field soldiering for that cause must be respected; he may be misguided, but he must be honest.' From that hour I have not ceased to act upon that principle."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

ACTION WON THE FARMER.

Proof of Kindness Stronger Than Any Political Argument.

The "one touch of nature" that "makes the whole world kin" was added accidentally by a man who, when he was running for the legislature, endeavored in vain to enlist by his argument the sympathies of a certain old Irishman. This Irishman had great influence with his neighbors, and it was therefore with some disappointment that the political aspirant saw Patrick Halloran's expression of stubborn disapproval at the close of an hour's conversation held close to the Halloran pigpen. In the end, however, Patrick and all his friends voted for the man, and one day, when his election was secure, the representative called again on Mr. Halloran. "I thought you were against me, Patrick," he said. "I was," said Mr. Halloran, frankly. "I had no use for your arguments that day you stood so long over the pigpen. But when I minded afterwards how while you talked you scratched the back of the pig till he lay down with the pleasures of it, I said to myself, 'He's all right, no matter if we do disagree on some few points,' I said."—Youth's Companion.

Primary Colors.

Primary colors are the colors into which white light is separated by the dispersion of a prism. Those named by Newton are red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. Artists reduce these to three—red, yellow and blue. Scientists generally consider red, green and blue to represent the primary color sensations, and in one theory there are supposed to be three sets of nerves in the retina which can respond to these three colors. The idea of three primary colors is that from the combination of these three all hues may be produced which are to be found in white light.

Philanthropist's Good Work.

William P. Letchworth, the donor of Glen Iris, the magnificent 1,000-acre estate that has been given to New York, is the originator of what is commonly known as the New York system of almshouse construction. It provides different buildings for the sexes, with an administration building in the center, a service building behind it, all joined by a connecting corridor. Because of his friendship for the Indian cause, he was adopted into the Seneca nation and given the name of "Hé-Wa-ye-is-tah," meaning "the man who always does the right thing."

Prairie Plays Hide-and-Seek.

Some years ago a topographer was sent out from Washington to make a survey of what was then Payne prairie, Florida, a bit of land about 85 miles in extent. The survey was made and the prairie described. Three or four years later a new surveying expedition found that this land had been transformed into a body of water, and it was put on the map as Lake Alachu. It developed that this lake-prairie plays a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde game with itself, sometimes appearing as one and sometimes as the other.

Playing for Safety.

A few weeks ago a negro, of Alabama, entering the witness box, said he thought he wouldn't swear. He thought he would just affirm. "Erastus," said the judge, "how is this? A month ago, when you appeared before me you consented readily enough to be sworn. Why is it you will only be affirmed now?" "Well, yo' honor," said Erastus, "de reason am dat I speeks I ain't quite so sure about de facts o' dis case as I was o' de odder."

King's Signature.

Trifling as the actual work of signing his name may seem, yet when the number of times King Edward affixes his signature to documents is considered the work assumes something of the nature of hard, or at least confining, labor. It is estimated that his royal name is signed to not fewer than 50,000 official documents yearly, and in addition to these there are several hundred signatures affixed to his private correspondence.

Miss Sarah Oldham of West Fourth street entertained with a social last evening.

The Bracken County Telephone Co., is extending its line to Dover following the Dover and Augusta pike.

In the Bracken Circuit Court, in the $1,800 damage suit of John L. B. Edwards, Administrator against the C. and O. Railroad Company for the killing of Mrs. John E. Edwards, his mother, by a C. and O. passenger train at the Augusta depot several months ago, Judge Harrison, after hearing the evidence, gave peremptory instructions to the Jury to find for the Railroad Company.

Rev. J. Stewart Mill and wife of Lexington will leave in a few days for Australia, the old home of Rev. Mill, where they will reside permanently. Mrs. Mill was formerly Miss Lonsella Mingus of Augusta, and the couple are now enjoying a brief visit with her relatives there before their departure. They were tendered a farewell reception at the Augusta Christian Church Thursday evening.

MURDER ON C. AND O.

Body Found in Freight Car at Huntington—Killing at Brent

Yesterday's dispatch from Huntington, says: As yet the identity of the man found murdered in a box car on a C. and O. freight yesterday, at Russell, has not been established.

He was about 25 and bore evidences of refinement.

A photograph of an elderly lady and a young girl was found in an inside coat pocket and this, with a Richmond street car ticket, was the only thing remaining about his garments.

John Henderson, Central City, Mo.; Joseph Munroe, Cincinnati, and John Hogan, Allegheny, Pa.; are in jail here charged with the crime.

They tried to escape, and Hogan ran a mile and a half before being captured. He had a blood-stained revolver with one chamber empty.

Blood stains are on the garments of all those under arrest.

Hogan says he heard a shot fired while the train was at Brent, Ky., below Ft. Thomas, but that he was not with the others now under arrest.

Mr. and Mrs. Marry B. Owens of West Second street entertained Thursday evening with a moonlight picnic at the Perrine Place in the country.

The hospitable suburban Kirk home on Hill-top was ablaze last evening in honor of a gathering of youth, beauty and chivalry, assembled in response to invitation of the charming young hostess, Miss Ellen Kirk.

Among those present were Misses Sallie Milton Hall, Lucy Baldwin, Marguerite Fitzgerald, Louise Doniphan of Augusta, Elizabeth Barbour, and Mary Hall of Pittsburgh; Messrs. W. Owens, Russell Hopper, Andrew Carr, John Fitzgerald, John Dudley Keith, Edward Ball, Lynn Hoeflich and Robert Hoeflich.

The Maysville guests, as a mounted cavalcade, enjoyed the trip going and coming immensely. The evening was one of unalloyed pleasure.

Children have tender stomachs

Most Physics are Dangerous

A child's stomach is very tender and cannot digest food as well as an adult's, and neither can it stand the explosive purgatives which adults are often persuaded to take for constipation and other stomach disorders. Many parents give their children such physics as salts, or the ordinary pills and tablets, that are pleasant to take because of their taste. A child that is dosed with such physics soon forms a habit which if continued means a permanent loss of health. A physic will be constantly required to move the bowels. Children do not object to taking as much as they do even the most palatable candy preparations, and the effect upon them is a thousand times more beneficial. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a cure for all stomach disorders. It is the very best cure for children and adults. It does not create a habit. It does cure.

In all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, chronic or acute constipation, biliousness, and all other disorders arising from stomach trouble of any kind it is a quick and positive cure. All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

Police Judge Abbott of Augusta has gone to Hamilton, O., where he will locate.

Mr. Thomas S. Andrew has sold his fine residence at Flemingsburg to Lawrence Howe and wife for $6,500.

At a meeting of the Directors of Ruggies Campgrounds Thursday in this city, it was decided to expend about $75 in new cutlery before the coming meeting, thus adding to the already fine service that is given at the hotel on these beautiful grounds.

CREAMER—COOPER.
Mr. Carl Creamer, aged 21, of Manchester, and Miss Irene Cooper, aged 21, of Adams county, O., were issued a marriage license this morning by the County Clerk.

RIGHT TO WORK
C. and O. Case to Be Taken to the Court of Appeals.

Augusta Chronicle.
In the Circuit Court at Brooksville Monday, Judge Harbeson sustained the demurrer of Attorney Wadsworth, representing the C. and O. Railroad, charging with working section men on Sunday, the Judge holding that the Railroad Company had a right to do this. A former Bracken County Grand Jury had returned indictments against the C. and O. on 20 counts for working section men on Sunday between Augusta and Dover. Commonwealth Attorney Hennessy took an appeal from Judge Harbeson's decision to the Court of Appeals.

"LIVES OF GREAT MEN ALL REMIND US"
The story of how Marshall Field amassed his great fortune may be told in a few words. He had something to sell and advertised it.

The long continued cold weather has caused us to make a Reduction on All Our Clothing of 10 Per Cent.

This includes every garment in the house for men, young men, boys and children, all our celebrated Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes for men and young men. Our Ederheimer, Stein & Co. for boys and children are marked in this reduction sale. If you have ever worn either of these makes you will know they have no superiors; if you have not, try them and then you will know.

We are young in the shoe business, and we are selling most of the real good ones, for the reason we have none but the best to offer.

OVERTAXED.

Hundreds of Maysville Readers Know What It Means
The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.
A Maysville citizen tells here a certain cure. Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blue Run Turnpike, West End, Maysville, Ky., says: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint which came on every few months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight return of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory.
For sale by druggists. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take it other.
